C. SENTENCING - GENERAL

The questions in this section are designed to assure the judge that you understand aspects of the sentencing process.

Answer question 13 only if you are pleading guilty pursuant to an 11(c)(1)(C) agreement. Otherwise, move on to question 14:

13. Do you understand that the judge may accept or reject your plea agreement? If the judge rejects your plea agreement, you may withdraw your guilty plea. If the judge accepts your plea agreement, the judge must follow its terms. That is, the judge must impose any specific sentence or apply the sentencing range, specific Sentencing Guidelines provisions, policy statements, or sentencing factors agreed upon by you and the government in the plea agreement. Your sentence will follow the terms of the agreement, which may be the same, greater or lesser than the sentence you would have received had you pleaded not guilty and had been convicted by a jury.

Yes    No   

If you answered question 13, skip question 14 and proceed to question 15.

14. Do you realize that:
- a) if you plead GUILTY, the judge may impose the same punishment as if you had pleaded NOT GUILTY and had been convicted by a jury?

☒ Yes ☐ No
- c) there is no guarantee your sentence will be within any particular sentencing guideline range?

18. Do you realize that, if you plead GUILTY, the judge may require you to make restitution to any victim of the offense?

19. Do you understand that, if you are convicted of any offense consisting of possession or distribution of controlled substances, you may be ineligible for any and all federal benefits?
☒ Yes ☐ No

20. Do you realize that the judge must require you to pay on each count to which you are convicted a special assessment as follows: each felony count $100; each misdemeanor count $5 to $25?

Yes No

21. If you are on probation, parole or supervised release from any court, do you know that by pleading GUILTY here your probation, parole or supervised release may be revoked and you may be required to serve time in that case in addition to any sentence imposed upon you in this case?

Yes No

22. The presentence report is instrumental in determining appropriate sentencing decisions, risk classification in the Bureau of Prisons, and identifying strategies that will provide you with the greatest opportunity for success. Full participation in the presentence process, including an interview, is your opportunity to provide a detailed account of your background and any other factors that could have an impact on your success. The U.S. Probation Office believes your failure to fully participate in the presentence investigation may limit sentencing options, programming availability, and other aspects of supervision. Thus, under the advisory sentencing guidelines, the judge will consider all relevant conduct at the time of sentencing, even if you are pleading guilty to less than all counts in the indictment.

Yes    No   

27. Do you understand that parole has been abolished in the federal system? Thus, if you are sentenced to a term of imprisonment, you will serve that term, less no more than 54 days per year you earn for good conduct.
